

Websites to help your Child with Gaeilge:

www.focloir.ie - This is a free English-Irish Dictionary. It is comprehensive and modern.

www.potafofocal.com - This is an online dictionary that will translate Irish to English or vice versa.

http://www.nicurriculum.org.uk/curriculum_microsite/snas_ar_sceal/ - This has writing cards and very useful games as Gaeilge. *Northern dialect.

www.leighleat.com - Excellent for nightly stories/fables, grammar, spelling and general Gaeilge.

<https://www.seideansi.ie/> - Child friendly, interactive games for all levels, catering from basic vocabulary to in-depth grammar.

<https://irishforparents.ie/resources-for-parents/> - Useful resources for independent learning based on thematic units, also useful for helping with homework.

<https://www.holytrinity.ie/parentsguardians/gaeilge-sa-bhaile> - Useful phrases to use at home with your child.

<https://www.cogg.ie/bain-sup-as/> - Structured input on grammar points.

<https://www.cula4.com/ga/cula4-na-nog/clair/bia-linn/oidis/> - or <https://trte.rte.ie/armbia/> Both excellent websites with recipes, instructions and preparation tools as Gaeilge - available to watch on the TG4 player or RTÉ.

<https://digitalfilmarchive.net/collection/dean-damhsa-liom-65> - Really useful website which explores the Gaeilge themes through dance. Aimed at 3-5 year olds but can be used with much older children.

<https://rtejr.rte.ie/10at10/> - The 10 @ 10 exercises as Gaeilge - great way to incorporate Gaeilge into physical activity.

<https://www.cula4.com/ga/> or <https://www.cula4.com/en/games/> - Programmes and games in Gaeilge for children.

Websites for Parents own Gaeilge:

<http://www.digitaldialects.com/Irish.htm> - A useful website for building core vocabulary.

<http://www.abair.tcd.ie/> - A useful pronunciation tool.

<http://www.easyirish.com/> - Useful podcasts on a variety of topics.

<https://www.ranganna.com> - Offers comprehensive Gaeilge courses.

Useful Apps:

Saibhreas na Gaeilge - A useful app which focuses on vocabulary and different phrases.

Duolingo - Excellent free app which offers a placement test.

Briathra na Gaeilge - Very useful app which conjugates the verbs into different tenses.

Get the Focal - Useful English/Irish dictionary.

Caoga Caoga - A useful Irish game in which vocabulary is matched to words.

Cúla Seinteoir - An interactive app of the website mentioned above.